NO. 2

WINTER, 1956

NOTES AND NEWS.

The Winter Study Groups.

The Winter Study Groups.

A wide variety of contributions on subjects ranging from patristic to modern time were offered at the meeting of the Church History Group at its December session at Tyndale House. Once again, original studies in aspects of the Evangelical Revival were well to the fore.

The Puritan Studies Group had well attended sessions at Westminster Chapel under the Chairmanship of Dr. D. M. Lloyd-Jones. Abstracts of the papers delivered will be issued in roneoed form. Some copies of the 1955 abstracts are still available, price 2s. 6d.

Summer Activities at Tyndale House, 1957.

Members are asked to note the altered dates of some of this year's activities.

27th June—1st July. Old Testament Study Group. Host: Dr. W. J. Martin.

Main Subject: The Book of Jeremiah.

29th June. Friends of Tyndale House Annual Meeting.

1st—5th July. Biblical Theology Study Group. Chairman: Dr. D. M. Lloyd-Jones.

Subject: The Doctrine of the Holy Spirit.

10th—13th July. New Testament Study Group. Leader: Professor F. F. Bruce.

Subject: The Corinthian Correspondence.

23rd—28th September. Courses in Biblical Hebrew for beginners and advanced students, conducted by Dr. W. J. Martin, assisted by Mr. K. A. Kitchen

Smaller "working parties" in apologetics, archaeology and Biblical theology have also arranged meetings at Tyndale House.

Tyndale Lectures 1957.

27th June. The Biblical Archaeology Lecture: The Joseph Narratives and Egyptian Sources (Mr. K. A. Kitchen, of the School of Archaeology and Oriental Studies, University of Liverpool).

29th June. The Inaugural Historical Theology Lecture: Henry Ryder, The First Evangelical Bishop (The Rev. Dr. G. C. B. Davies, Professor of Ecclesiastical History, University of Dublin).

1st July. The Biblical Theology Lecture: The Intercession of the Spirit. (The Rev. Dr. Gwyn Walters, Professor of Christian Ethics, Temple University, Philadelphia).

10th July. The New Testament Lecture: Social Obligation in the New Testament (Mr. E. A. Judge, Lecturer in Ancient History, University of Sydney).

New Residents at Tyndale House.

We welcome a number of research workers from overseas to Tyndale House.

Professor W. F. Arndt, Co-editor with Dr. F. W. Gingrich of the Greek-English Lexicon of the New Testament and other early Christian Literature just published by the Cambridge University Press, has joined us; as have the Rev. Ulrich Hedinger from Switzerland and the Rev. J. D. Wadsworth from the United States.

Mr. M. J. S. Rudwick, University Demonstrator in Geology, has left on his election to a Fellowship at Trinity College.

Recent Lectures at Tyndale House.

The following public lectures have been delivered at Tyndale House:

The 'Word of Exhortation' and the Gospel Tradition (The Rev. Professor W. J. Cameron).

The Scottish Evangelical Revival of 1742 (The Rev. Dr. Arthur Fawcett).

The Italian Reformation (Mr. P. J. M. McNair).

Tyndale Fellowship of Australia.

Good news continues to come of the Fellowship's sister organisation in Australia. We have received copies of papers read at their meetings on the Hebrew root 'asham' (by Dr. Leon Morris), the significance of Edom for the history of Israel (by Mr. J. A. Thompson), and evangelical mysticism (by Mr. B. S. Brown), and of a major lecture delivered by Dr. D. B. Knox on Justification by Faith.

Theses.

It has been suggested that it would be of great value to hold in the Tyndale Library some account of the researches of our members. It would therefore be very much appreciated if members who have completed or are completing academic theses would send to the Librarian a copy of the abstract. Of course, he would be very glad to receive a copy of the complete thesis if this can be arranged!
