

Church History Research Group

In the reorganisation of the Tyndale Fellowship it was decided that the Church History Group might be better with an independent existence of its own. Accordingly the Church History Research Group makes its appearance as an autonomous group of equal standing with the Tyndale Fellowship. The first meeting of this new Group is to take place at Tyndale House from January 1-4, 1963. The programme is in course of being arranged.

The Historical Theology Lecture will be delivered during the course of the Group meeting. The speaker this year is the Rev. Alan Dunstone and his subject, 'The Atonement in Gregory of Nyssa'.
