

TYNDALE BULLETIN

INDEX TO VOLUMES 1-30

Compiled by C. J. HEMER.

NOTE. The irregularities in the numbers and dates of earlier issues are due to progressive changes and improvements of format. The present journal is the successor to the quarterly publications Theological Notes (1944) and The Tyndale Bulletin (Old Series) (1945-1948), the change of name following 'upon the opening of Tyndale House as a research centre in 1944. The re-establishment of the journal proper as a separate publication, The Tyndale House Bulletin, from the time of the House extension in 1956 initiates the present series. It was at first a combination of newsletter with articles and notes, and appeared almost twice yearly until 1965, with a change to a new journal format between the curiously numbered double issues 4-5 and 5-6. Since Vol. 17 (1966) the renamed Tyndale Bulletin has been an annual journal, incorporating the publication of many Tyndale Lectures, which had previously appeared individually in the discontinued Tyndale Monograph series.

The compiler is indebted to a paper submitted earlier by Mr. Alan G. Padgett of Madison, New Jersey, whose listings have been partly used and revised for the first part of this index.

SUBJECT INDEX

This part is arranged under broad topical headings grouped for practicality of reference rather than on a consistent theoretical principle. Articles are placed chronologically in each section. Duplicate entries are made selectively, often to include both major themes and focal passages of scripture under discussion, whether or not apparent from the title. Except in a few cases, articles are listed only by author's surname, short title and volume number. Full bibliographical details will be found by reference to the author index.
